

THE PARISH OF CATHAYS

THE CHURCHES OF
ST. ANDREW & ST. TEILO,
WOODVILLE RD.
ST. MICHAEL & ALL ANGELS,
WHITCHURCH RD.

June 26th 2011

Trinity 1

Pentecost 2

Year A

Everyone is welcome here. In St. Michael's you will find a Sunday School, at which all young children are very welcome. There is a family service on the first Sunday of each month. In St. Teilo's we have a choir in university term-time, and the church has traditionally been a place of worship for students, as well as the wider community. If you are new to the church please make yourself known to Caroline, the Wardens, or a member of the congregation. Please stay for tea or coffee after the service.

*Whoever welcomes you welcomes me,
and whoever welcomes me welcomes
the one who sent me.*

Collect of the day:

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN

The Old Testament Reading

The reader says: A reading from the Book of the prophet Jeremiah

Jeremiah 28:5-9

SIT

The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord; and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the Lord do so; may the Lord fulfil the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the Lord, and all the exiles. But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the Lord has truly sent the prophet."

Silence

Reader:

This is the word of the Lord.

Response:

Thanks be to God.

The Epistle.

SIT

The reader says: A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans

Romans 6:12-23

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Psalm 89:1-4, 15-18

STAND

My song shall be always of the loving-kindness / of the / Lord: with my mouth will I proclaim your faithfulness * through- / out all / gene- / rations.

I will declare that your love is es- / tablished • for / ever: you have set your faithfulness as / firm / as the / heavens.

For you said: * ‘I have made a covenant / with my / chosen one: I have sworn an / oath to / David • my / servant:

‘ “Your seed will I es- / tablish • for / ever: and build up your throne for / all / gene- / rations.” ‘

Happy are the people who know the / shout of / triumph: they walk, O Lord, / in the / light of • your / countenance.

In your name they rejoice / all the • day / long: and are ex- / alted / in your / righteousness.

For you are the glory / of their / strength: and in your favour / you lift / up our / heads.

Truly the Lord / is our / shield: the Holy One of / Israel / is our / king.

The Gospel.

Priest: Listen to the Gospel of Christ according to Saint Matthew

Response: Glory to you, O Lord

Matthew 10:40-42

Jesus said to his disciples, “Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple – truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.”

After the Gospel:

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Response:

Praise to you, O Christ.
